

25. Handling and slaughtering animals

Last update: 2025-06-04

Animals can carry germs that spread disease to people. Never touch sick or dead animals without protection. Always wash hands with clean water after touching or slaughtering animals.